

I believe that competition is the key to better service (and a better life) and do not see that these mergers go any way toward enhancing competition. Please stop them.